- Our retreats may be a challenging experience for some participants that have difficulty ambulating. We want you to be aware that our retreats do require moderate strength and physical stamina. Depending on the facility, retreatants may need to walk up and down stairs and/or stroll to designated event activity areas.
- We work hard to make your Mercy & Mary Retreat a success. However, it is not always possible to meet the needs of every individual. If you have particular items or foods that you may need during your retreat, we highly recommend that you plan to have these with you.
- Photos taken at our retreats help us in promoting future events so that we can reach more souls. While participating in the retreat activities, your photo may be taken and posted on our social media platforms. May we kindly ask you to inform us, prior to the event, if there is some reason that your photo may not be taken.
